

General Rules of Power Policy of Bank Handlowy w Warszawie S.A.

One of the basic rules of conduct of employees of Bank Handlowy w Warszawie S.A. (hereinafter: the “Bank”), operating under the brand of Citi Handlowy, is care of proper use and consumption of power.

The Bank undertakes to:

- 1) conduct its activities in accordance with applicable provisions of law and in accordance with other regulations concerning the Bank, which are related to the use and consumption of power as well as energy performance of the Bank,
- 2) implement, maintain and constantly improve a system related to management of power, compliant with ISO 50001 standard,
- 3) constantly improve energy performance,
- 4) provide availability of information and any resources necessary to achieve determined power objectives.

The aim and the task of the Bank is to:

- manage power consumption as effectively as possible,
- minimize consumption of energy resources,
- support purchasing of energy-saving products and services as well as improve energy performance.